-I'm really fast.

I work in a process that guides both of us to your final product.

Outline:

We discuss the main idea of your project. We agree on the style and "look" you want to achieve. we review examples or similar projects that have elements you like. we review What elements need to be created and timeline for an initial draft.

Draft:

I will organize a draft of the Facebook marketing, email marketing, google absence, google ads, Instagram marketing or titles that will encompass your main idea and the core elements that were discussed in the outline. this will serve as a storyboard for your ideas and can serve as a great point to re-evaluate your message and how you want it portrayed.

I am always available for questions and discussions of anything you need. 100% customer satisfaction is my goal, and I am not happy until you are happy.

Thank You
